Traditional dance and music of the world

PROJECT'S MAIN CORE :

Exchanges and development of cultures and youth through the traditional music and dance of the world.

OBJECTIVES :

La Cité de la Musique of Marseilles (France) is looking for partners to take part in innovating european projects (co-operation, exchange of good practices). The projects can deal with the teaching of traditional music and the diffusion of the actual and traditionnal musical practices, but also with dance when it is indissociable with musical practices.

ACTIVITIES :

La Cité de la Musique of Marseilles, starting from work already achieved and with the collaboration of musicians and pedagogues established in Marseilles and in the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur Region, would like to initiate and amplify the meeting and the discovery of the cultures, by :

-sharing experience and innovative teaching reflexions

-exchanges of teachers and students around interpretation, transmission of the instrumental techniques, improvisation and repertories, master classes

-exchanges of ethnomusicologists

-residence of artists (creative projects)

-common performances and demonstrations

PROJECT LEADER :

La Cité de la Musique's main activity is the musical practice, accessible to any public. The structure teaches 40 disciplines, has 62 teachers and 2200 students, allocated in 8 decentralized music schools covering the Marseilles metropolitan territory. It organizes also more than 100 concerts and exhibitions per annum and has three theatres. La Cité de la Musique of Marseilles welcomes 8 cultural associations and regularly organizes residences of artists, master classes, exhibitions, projections of documentaries, seminars... It also has a teaching resource centre.

EXPECTED PARTNERSHIP:

Same type of structures and cultural associations from the 31 countries of Europe and the Mediterranean.
